

High School Bible Teacher Job Description

Purpose of Position:

Des Moines Christian School Teachers are student-focused professionals who fulfill the mission of DMC as the most significant school-related influence on student learning. DMC teachers are supported and empowered through a shared vision of learning to foster a school culture of academic excellence and spiritual growth where learners flourish.

DMC's Bible program is focused on equipping students with Biblical literacy as well as Worldview and Apologetic competency. The Bible teacher is a guide for students to apply the Bible to everyday life, resulting in the development of a resilient faith in order to impact the world for Christ. DMC Bible teachers facilitate growth-based group conversations in large group (100+) and small group (15-25) settings. This is accomplished through collaboration with the high school Bible team to teach all grade levels (9-12) together.

Position:

- Full-time, School Year
- Salaried, contracted employee
- Full-Time Benefit Eligible

Reports To: Head of High School

Qualifications:

- Minimum of a BS/BA in Education, Biblical Studies, or related field.
- Classroom teaching experience and/or a teaching license is preferred but not required.
- Professing believer in Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and committed to growing in relationship with Him.
- In agreement with the Des Moines Christian School Statement of Faith.
- In agreement with the Des Moines Christian School Biblical Convictions for Christian Education.
- Regularly attends and is actively involved in a church that affirms historic Christian orthodoxy (doctrine, faith, teaching, practice), consistent with the DMC Statement of Faith, through that church's public creed, confession, core beliefs, or statement of faith.

Professional Profile:

- Committed to the mission of DMC: Equipping minds and nurturing hearts to impact the world for Christ.
- A teacher and learner at heart who loves students of all ages and exudes enthusiasm for shepherding the growth of children.
- Demonstrates consistent spiritual leadership.
- Characterized with integrity and maintains confidentiality.
- Utilizes critical thinking and problem-solving skills.
- Demonstrates effective verbal and written communication skills.
- Adapts communication style to suit different audiences.
- Demonstrates patience, care, and kindness for all learners and families.
- Demonstrated ability to work collaboratively as part of team.

Responsibilities:

- Ensures the DMC mission drives all curricular and extracurricular activities.
- Exhibits a love of teaching and a passion to see each student succeed.
- Develops trusting, productive relationships with students to create a safe, positive, and productive learning environment.
- Integrates a Biblical Worldview in daily instruction that examines God's creation, man's brokenness, the redemption of Christ, and God's future restoration. Coupled with classroom discussion, faculty create formational learning experiences that engage students in real-world opportunities to impact the world for Christ.
- Demonstrates expertise in a given content or subject area as well as knowledge of the standards, learning targets, and appropriate materials for the student age and content area.
- Uses a variety of instructional strategies and assessment practices to deepen the learning for each student.
- Solicits feedback from students to self-reflect on their own teaching, set goals for improvement, and grow in the craft of teaching.
- Possesses knowledge about the cognitive, emotional, and social development of learners including how students learn at any given developmental level, how students progress in a certain subject area, awareness of individual needs and abilities, how to tailor instruction to meet each learner's needs, and how to assess learning appropriate for the age and content area.
- Serves as a collaborative, productive team member who participates in Christian professional learning communities, school events, department meetings, and other committee work that enhances the experience for faculty and students at Des Moines Christian School.
- Engages in ongoing professional growth conversations with their leader.
- Partners with parents through effective, consistent communication.
- All other duties as assigned.
