

April 2022 Slate of Candidates

Eric Fopma

Eric Fopma is the Finance Director of Fremont Farms of Iowa. His financial acumen and experience with business operations bring a unique skill set to our board. He is an advocate for Christian education, as several generations of his family have attended Christian schools.

Eric is married to Michelle Fopma and they are active attendees of Westview Church in Waukee. The Fopmas have two children currently enrolled at DMC and twin sons who graduated from DMC in 2020. Eric has also served on the DMC financial and advancement committees.

Jerry Foster

Jerry Foster is the founder and current Chairman of the Board for the financial services company Foster Group. Jerry brings a wealth of experience in leadership, entrepreneurship, and investment management. He has always been passionate about supporting education, and will provide wisdom from years of community and philanthropic involvement when advocating for a culture of Christian education.

Jerry and his wife Nancy are members of Valley Church in West Des Moines, Iowa. They have four grown children and fifteen grandchildren. They are DMC alumni parents and DMC grandparents.

Josh Moulton

Josh Moulton is a founder of Classic Builders, which was acquired by D.R. Horton, Inc. America's Builder in 2018. He has vast knowledge and hands-on experience in building, development, land acquisition, and real estate.

He and his wife Amanda have three children at DMC and the family attends the Walnut Creek Downtown church. Josh and Amanda host a youth sports program in Ankeny that consists of six teams.

April 2022 Slate of Candidates (continued)

Tammy Niemann

Tammy Niemann is the Founder and Principal of Rock Life Consulting. Her expertise includes creating business development processes, employee development, training programs and relationship building to motivate a team to deliver results.

Tammy and her husband Casey are active members of Lutheran Church of Hope–West Des Moines. They have two current DMC students and their oldest child graduated from DMC in 2021. Tammy is an Iowa FFA Foundation board member, currently serving as Secretary. She volunteers in the Waukee community and is a member of the Waukee Chamber of Commerce.

Anne Risewick

Anne Risewick's professional career spanned many years prior to stepping back to focus on her family. In her most recent role as Director of North American Alliances and Channels at Oracle, an IT services and consulting company, she was responsible for strategic partnerships in North America for the Health Sciences Division. She brings a passion for building and leading teams as well as experience in marketing, education, policy development and communications. Anne is also an evangelism coach and speaker, providing encouragement to others as they share their faith in their spheres of influence.

Anne is married to JC Risewick and they have three students at DMC. She also serves on the board of Impact Iowa's Heroes. The Risewick family attends Valley Church in West Des Moines, where Anne is also an active volunteer in the women's and children's ministries.

