Course Description
Grade 7 Exploratory Technology

Philosophy Statement: God has given man the intellect and ability to design and use technology for His purpose and glory. A technology foundation is essential for learning, communicating, and living in the 21st century.

Course Objective: Students will demonstrate proficiency in keyboarding, develop an understanding and practice of digital citizenship, and gain experience with various technology applications.

Textbooks: DMCS Technology Honor Code, Common Sense Media, The Digital Invasion by Hart and Hart Frejd

Materials: digital resources

Time Allotment: 1 quarter

Course Content:
- Keyboarding practice
- Digital Citizenship
- Technology applications

Areas to be evaluated:
- Class participation
- Projects